Jay Hansen and Phil Heath gave a description of services of Prairie Ridge Addiction Treatment Services. They provide education, prevention, referral, post-treatment services. The scope of contracted services includes outreach efforts to adequately inform county residents as to the availability of substance abuse services and how they may be accessed in the county. Additional resources are provided to insure adequate aftercare services in support of gains made during the treatment process, as well as providing supplements to the community-wide prevention efforts. A portion of this County/State Match program is directed to Kossuth Connections, a community coalition providing substance abuse prevention, planning and services to residents of Kossuth County.

On motion adjournment was taken until January 30, 2007.

Attest:

Joann Bormann
Kossuth County Auditor

Jack Plathe, Chairman
